DEDICATION

TO

Mr. P. G. "Pep" Jones

who, for the past eleven and one-half years, has rendered devoted and faithful service to the students and faculty of this Institution; who has practiced the sterling qualities of kindness and courtesy in his dealings with the people who have found it necessary to transact business with him through the Business Office; whose knowledge of science, literature, art, and the general culture of the peoples of the world — gained through travel, hard work, and study — has made him a teacher at heart, and has kept him young, healthy, happy, and extremely interested in the people of the world,

Rediscover Your Home Town

Freedom of choice starts where people live and work. There have been vast changes this past decade . . . not only in the world and nation, but also in our home town. And . . . more are on the way. Read your hometown newspaper with care—the advertising as well as the news columns—to discover the freedom of choices that promises you a happier, more abundant life, right here in your own hometown.
